Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 21-34 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not disclose or render obvious an automatic gearbox wherein the motor revolution speed is increasable with a respective virtual transmission ratio in which the motor revolution speed and a vehicle velocity of the motor vehicle vary along a respective characteristic line of the respective step that does not pass through a zero point of the motor revolution speed and the vehicle velocity in combination with the other elements required by independent claim 21.

The prior art does not disclose or render obvious a continuously variable transmission wherein a respective virtual transmission ratio of said motor rotational speed relative to said vehicle speed, in which respective virtual transmission ratio said motor rotational speed and said vehicle speed vary along a respective characteristic line that does not pass through a zero point of said motor rotational speed and said vehicle speed, in combination with the other elements required by independent claim 32.

The prior art does not disclose or render obvious an improvement wherein said control program is embodied such that b is an apparent virtual non-zero offset value of said motor rotational speed for a zero value of said vehicle speed along said characteristic line, in combination with the other elements required by independent claim 34.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
